

SAM FEDELE | COMEDIAN

What makes this former business owner and Marine one of the most sought-after talents in the industry? Simple. He destroys the room, corporate functions, cruise ships and comedy clubs. Fedele delivers a brand of comedy GUARANTEED to blow you away.

Whether it's Ford Motor Company, Union Bank of California or Fire Base Afghanistan, Sam will deliver the laughs.

Sam developed his high-energy style of comedy growing up on the mean streets of New Jersey. Being voted high school class clown was the first step in the development of this live wire act. Sam spent the next six years honing his skills in the United States Marine Corps, neither Sam nor the Marine Corps would ever be the same again. After being honorably discharged, Sam spent the next nine years owning and operating one of the most successful blueprint companies in Southern California.

Sam's diversified background and his high energy comedy make him perfect for any event. Make your next corporate gathering a success and enjoy an evening with one of the hottest comics in the country.

Sam is a comedy club and college favorite nationwide, and has been seen on NBC, Comedy Central, the PAX Network and CBC Television in Canada.
